VOL. XXXI.

STANFORD, KY TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1904. 8 A.M.

NO. 88

MIDDLEBURG.

The musical entertainment at H. H. McAninch's Monday evening was a success. The string band furnished the music.

Mrs. Eila Cowan was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Coulter. Miss Jessie Coulter gave the young folks a party Tuesday night.

Wm. McIntosh was in Stanford on business. Frank Jones and wife were guests at Rev. Ferrell's Tuesday. O. R. Jones and Edgar Miller were visiting relatives at South Park.

The Xmas tree at the College was well attended and the social entertainment after the tree was unloaded of its presents was a decided success. The young folks had a royal time and all went away well pleased.

Perry Wesley, our dentist, has been very low with pneumonia and has had several hemorrhages. He was reported some better Sunday. Here to the wife of Wm. Thomas, a fine boy. John Lenthicou, wife and son, of Indiana, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Della Moran. Clarence Lucas has been with his sister near Stanford for several days. Dutch Miller is at home on a visit to his parents.

Miss Lillie Miller is visiting her parents here. Miss Lulu Benson is at home on a visit from Roanoke, Va. Misses Eva, Maud and Ethel Sims were visiting at Wm. Lucas' last week. Charlene Coleman spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Etta Coleman. Miss Edna Ferrell was visiting Miss Anna Swope Sunday. Preston Fugle, of Piute, Indian Territory, is at home again with his parents. Pres is a very promising young lawyer, a strong democrat and is very highly thought of by his host of friends in Casey. John Swope is at home on a visit from McDonald. F. B. Lucas and son Morton, were in Stanford.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Cure Catarrh by Nature's Own Method—Every Breath of Hyomei Brings Relief.

Nearly every one who has research knows how foolish it is to try and cure it by drugging the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would have sold the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with Hyomei you can carry a health giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day soon cure yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

G. L. Penny has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more he sells the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not cure.

Here's your chance. The members of a Knights of Pythias Lodge in Illinois have offered to buy the license, furnish a house and pay the expenses of a two weeks' honeymoon for any couple that will agree to the conditions of becoming engaged and married on the night of the annual lodge ball.

We have always regarded it as theft, pure and simple, for a man to draw a pension he does not deserve and does not need, and it is exceedingly gratifying to have found one old soldier who entertains the same opinion. Editor F. J. Campbell, of the Somerset Journal, who was in the city a few days, is one of the few who fought for the banner, who is not now drawing a pension. He says he can make a living without government bounty, and as long as he can do so he will not accept it. Mr. Campbell is one among ten thousand; in fact, he is the only man of our knowledge who could get a pension and does not get one. Let his name be written in letters of gold and pictures of silver, and his example held up for the emulation of those who would make merchandise of their patriotism—Lexington Democrat.

A Frightened Horse

Running like mad down the street dashing the occupants, or a 100 other accidents, are everyday occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucalen's Arctic Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. by all Druggists.

Every time a big ocean liner arrives to port it is repainted. This is no light task, for the area covered is two and a half acres. In painting the lemons the men are suspended from the rail on the top of the mouth of the funnel.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pale Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by W. N. Craig.

SOMERSET.

The time for the franchise for the street railway has been extended, but that it will be a certainty no one doubts.

New Year's greeting to the dear old JOURNAL and its many readers. We trust Christmas was a happy occasion to each and all.

Aside from a few social functions and the Christmas tree for the different Sunday schools the holidays passed very quietly here.

After a short but pleasant visit to friends here Misses Louise Stapp and Genevieve Atkinson turned Wednesday to Campbellsburg.

The electric light plant will be furnished with new boiler and new engine which will give better satisfaction than the reuse of the old ones.

As we had hinted greatly desired.

Mr. Fitzgerald was justly awarded a handsome gold medal for the most excellent condition of the yards at this place.

A new telephone directory will soon be issued in which will appear a great number of advertisements showing that our little city keeps up to date in every respect.

The commercial clubs planning great things for the present year and surely great things are expected, for Somerset must keep up her record as a first class city.

The pikes in six different directions have been completed and will prove a benediction so far as they go, and that they will be extended is only a question of time.

The finishing touches are now being put upon the large and imposing New-tonian Hotel. Some of the rooms are now being occupied preparatory to a grand opening in the near future.

After undergoing considerable damage by fire the Somerset Bakery has been enlarged and rebuilt and is now ready to accommodate all its former patrons with fresh bread and everything pertaining to a well equipped bakery.

The series of meetings at the Presbyterian church have been postponed indefinitely. Rev. Thibodeau, of Lancaster, will assist O. P. McMahon in a meeting at the Christian church, beginning the 11th. Mrs. Harrison, of Lexington, will meet with the Ladies' Auxiliary at the beginning of the meeting.

MATRIMONIAL.

David Hysinger and Miss Mary Durmon were married in Roanoke last week.

Miss Mollie Hendren, of Kirksville, and Everett Parks, of Evansville, were married Friday.

Samuel W. Minor, a prominent young farmer of the West End, and Miss Ellie Boyle, daughter of John L. Boyle, of Moreland, were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. F. H. Coleman.—Advocate.

Here's your chance. The members of a Knights of Pythias Lodge in Illinois have offered to buy the license, furnish a house and pay the expenses of a two weeks' honeymoon for any couple that will agree to the conditions of becoming engaged and married on the night of the annual lodge ball.

From gay Gotham comes the information that the "old maids" are engaged in the very questionable occupation of organizing what are known as "anti-obey societies," the object of which is to eliminate the word "obey" from the marriage vow. The young men need not become alarmed, however, for that is only a big bluff. The average old maid who lives east of the Hudson river would jump at anything in the guise of a man in utter disregard of what the marital obligation contained. She would prefer to accept it with all its obnoxious features than to be consigned to the company of matinee girls and an effort to satisfy her soul with the Dead sea fruit of fashion. Gotham's old maids are not sincere in this class of work.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

John B. Foster sold to C. M. Jones a Red Herkshire boar for $15.

W. A. Tribble sold to C. C. Hickey a Poland China boar for $12.50.

M. J. Harris sold to Nels Morris 300 cattle, weight about 1,300 pounds, at $15—News.

R. W. Stigall has bought of Frank North, of the West End, his farm of 55 acres at $58.

Tobacco prize is good shape, for sale.

Will deliver to Lancaster or Stanford for $10. B. T. Lunsford, Preachersville.

2.

Diana Ilievie was killed and his two sons seriously wounded by J. J. Smith and his 17-year-old son in the Tennessee county.

Three persons were killed and four others injured in a fire that destroyed the Louvre Family Hotel, Chicago.

The democrats of Woodford will hold a primary to nominate county officers on Feb. 29.

NEWS NOTES.

Miss Dolly Langdon, aged 18, was burned to death at her home in Grayson county.

Capt. Frederick Pabst, head of the Pabst Brewing Company, of Milwaukee, is dead.

One man was killed and another was seriously injured in a boiler explosion in Franklin county.

J. W. Dawson, of Louisville, received $75 from an unknown person. He lost the money 15 years ago.

The Highland Hotel at Albuquerque, one of the finest winter resorts in New Mexico, was destroyed by fire.

Anna Cooper, a 17 year-old girl, shot herself in Cincinnati because of a longing for her old home near Cynthiana.

Robert Bonfield, of Glendale, Ala., while drunk, set fire to the jail, in which he was incarcerated, and was buried to death.

Frank Hubbard, an aged Ohio county farmer, died from the effects of a shock caused by the burning to death of his 14 year old daughter.

Robert Alexander, of Ripley, Tenn., was assassinated while sitting in his home conversing with his wife. The assassin is not known.

Hurdlane dynamited the safe of O Cohen, a pawnbroker, at Des Moines, Ia., and got away with $8,000 in cash, diamonds, watches and other property.

Engineer Oliver Herbert, Fireman Elmer Safford and Bageman Fred Snyder were killed in a collision on the Pennsylvania railroad, near Larwill, Ind.

Will S. Hayes, river writer on the Courier Journal and Times, and one of the best known rivermen in the Ohio valley, suffered a stroke of apoplexy which affected his right side and his power of speech.

A fire visited Mt. Sterling destroying the opera house block, entailing a loss of $135,000. Joe W. Barnes, a prominent citizen, and Frank White, a Negro, were killed by a falling wall while fighting the flames.

Mary Anderson, now Mrs. Navarro, recently appeared in song and recital before the poor, at which a handsome sum was realized. When interviewed she declared that she would never again return to the stage.

Fargo Squiers, oldest son of United States Minister Squiers, was accidentally shot and killed at Havana by Gaston Mirbaud, a chauffeur employed by his father. Squiers and several servants were engaged in shooting at a target at the time the accident occurred.

Eight Louisville people were in the Chicago holocaust, two meeting death.

They were Mrs. Frances Owens and her daughter, Miss Amy Owens. Their charred bodies have been recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fehr, Mrs. D. K. Beatt, Mrs. F. W. Samuel, Leonard Bacon and Dr. Robert Capine are the fortunate ones who escaped.

AN estimate was recently made of the amount of wealth pro rata that was represented in the meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel Trust, with all members present, and it was shown that one twelfth of the wealth of the country was tied up in that little gathering of financiers. This is another evidence of the general centralization of wealth under the vicious system of spoils that find favor with a republican administration.

THE Courier Journal puts all of its competitors to sleep in its new undertaking. In order to get the splendid paper to Frankfort early each morning it will run a special train between Louisville and that place each day. The train will leave the Union Station at Seventh and the river at 3 A. M. It will carry both passengers and papers and will bring Eastern and Central Kentucky nearly a day nearer to Louisville.

In the House of Representatives at Frankfort there are two Blacks, W. C., from Knox, and Sam C., from Mercer; three Days, Carl, from Breathitt, Chas. C., from Rowan, and J. Will from Daviss; two Davises, John T., from Carlisle, and W. A. B., from Rockcastle; two Thompsons, A. S., from Bourbon, and A. J., from Meade.

OWING to the splendid administration of the State's fiscal affairs, the best showing in its history of 112 years, is shown by Auditor Coulter's statement, issued at the close of the year. There was to the credit of the State on Dec. 31, $1,505,497.65, the largest sum ever on hand at the opening of a legislative session.

ALL but a few of the Legislators had reached Frankfort yesterday morning. All the candidates for speaker are on the ground and the contest for that office is nearing the finish with at least four candidates making very confident claims.

IT is safe to say that not many people expectorate on the Chattanooga pavements. The City Council has made it a crime, punishable by a fine of $5, and the law is seldom violated. Atlanta has a similar law and it works like a charm.

GEN. LONGSTREET, the last of his rank except Gen. Gordon, who fought for the "Lost Cause," has crossed over the river "to rest with Jackson under the shade of the trees."

PRAISE the Lord! Lexington has a democratic mayor at last. Now let old "Dunc" go way back and sit down and take his Sunday letters with him.

POLITICAL.

The New Year's reception at the White House was attended by 7,000 people. President Roosevelt shook hands with all the callers.

The Congressional Library has purchased from Mrs. G. W. Fall, of Nashville, for $10,000, the letters of President James K. Polk.

The general opinion in Washington is that the Panama canal treaty will be ratified by the Senate, although a vote may not be reached before May 1.

Hon. John P. Newman, circuit judge-elect of the Campbell county judicial district, died at his residence in Bellevue, of hemorrhage of the lungs, super-induced by a long illness of pneumonia. Judge Hodge, of Newport, says he is willing to serve the term for which Judge Newman was elected and give the salary to the dead man's family, but the law will not permit this. It is claimed.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Edith Saddier is dead at Burgoon. George Boozoff, formerly of Danville, is among the missing in the Iroquois Theatre fire in Chicago.

Harry Elmore, who left his home at Lancaster, has been found by his father at his uncle's in Shelby county.

The planning and preparatory work of securing a due equipment for an industrial school at Mt. Vernon is being pushed with energy.

Cesar Daugherty was shot and killed by J. M. Wilson in the mining district of Pulaski. Daugherty, it is alleged, threatened Wilson.

At the old fiddlers' contest Saturday night, the prize for the ugliest man was awarded to W. A. B. Davis, by almost a unanimous vote.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The Masonic Lodge at Lancaster has elected the following officers: Master, J. J. Joseph; Sr. Warden, K. F. Postle; Jr. Warden, C. M. Chumley; R. King, Treasurer; Louis Landrum, Secretary; Fred Fribble, Sr. Deacon; Alex Bishop, Jr. Deacon.

The Junction City petitioners, like Banquo's ghost, won't down, and have filed with the county clerk of Boyle county another petition, asking that an election be held in that city on February 27th, next, for the purpose of taking the sense of the people on the question of having open saloons once more.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all drug-gists:

Representative Williams, the House minority leader, denies the report that he had declared for Richard Olney for the democratic presidential nomination.

A change for the worse is reported in the condition of former Gov. John Young Brown.

In remitting for his paper from Winchester, Mr. A. J. Harp says the year just closed has been the most successful one he has ever experienced in the photograph business.

COL T P HILL made his 32nd payment for this paper yesterday. During the 17 years he has read the I. J. he has never been as much as five days behind on his subscription.

MR HUGHES ALDRIDGE, of Lancaster, who bought out James T. Jones' tin and plumbing business, has taken charge. He has moved his family to one of Dr. W. B. O'Bannon's cottages on Lancaster Avenue.

HON. J M ALVERSON is now serving his constituency in the Legislature at Frankfort. If he makes as good a Representative as he has made this paper a faithful attache Lincoln county will have no reason to rue the day she sent him to represent her.

JUDGE JOSH SWOPE has removed his stock of groceries to Lexington and we will miss him. George Hunn, of Moreland, spent the holidays with his father and mother on Mt. Vernon St. T. J. North, of Lincoln county, was the attractive guest of the Misses Hunn.—Somerset Journal.

MRS J R BEAZSEY is ill. Mrs Adelia Woods is visiting at Paint Lick.

HANDSOME MISS JEAN WARREN returned to her home in Boyle yesterday after a delightful visit to the Misses Warren

LOCALS.

We want everybody to come to the auction Grand Leader.

DON'T miss the bargains in shoes we are offering this week. John P. Jones.

LOST—A black golf glove between McRobert's Drug Store and the Presbyterian church on Christmas evening. Return to this office.

JAN 8—The Jesse James Bandit King Co. will hold the boards at Walton's Opera House, Friday night, Jan 8. Hear that's mind.

THE old year is gone and the new one has come. Careen & Pence want what you owe them and take this method of so informing you.

1904 Ticket No 3191 draws the handsome Davenport given away by Cummins & McClary, the up-to-date clothiers and furnishers.

THE supervisors, Messrs Emmett McCormack, E D Kennedy, J. H. McKee, C A Redd and W. H. Staubs, began their work yesterday.

LEO BROKEN—James Johnson, little son of Mrs. Sallie Johnson, had his right leg broken between the knee and ankle by catching the member in a buggy wheel.

R G JONES sold to Harve Hordius a cottage near Parsons & Weller's mill for $800. It cost him $500 about a year ago. Property is advancing in the best town on the map.

A GOOD white woman without children, who can cook well, can get a good home and liberal wages by immediate application to G. B. Swinebroad, Lancaster, Ky. Good room and not a great deal of house work to do.

If D CARTER, of the Turcerville section, has bought a half interest in L. M. Bruce's livery stable and the firm name now is Bruce & Carter. They will put in a lot of new horses, buggies, drummer's wagons, etc., and will have a splendidly equipped stable. Both of the gentlemen are popular and energetic and we bespeak for them a liberal share of the livery business here. Mr Carter has moved his family to the Withers cottage on Danville Avenue.

RADID GROWTH—Dr W. D. Tardif, who is the Grand Secretary, tells us that the Endowment Bureau of the United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten has made phenomenal growth since its organization in December of 1902. When organized, the Bureau had to borrow money to have its insurance policies printed and now there are about 12,000 policy holders. Nearly $8,000 came thru' Dr Tardif's hands last year and the writing he did would fill several large volumes. The Bureau paid out about $1,000 in death claims last year, $183 of which was to policy holders in Stanford. This office does most of the printing for the order and it has no better patron than Dr. Tardif, who knows what he wants and always pays cheerfully for what he gets.

TRIPPER have been so many entertainments since our last issue that space forbids an extended mention of them all. On Thursday evening Miss Sallie Taylor Woods entertained very charmingly in honor of Miss Coralee Conway, of Lexington, and on the following evening the Misses Engleman gave a delightful party in her honor. On Friday afternoon from 4 to 5, Miss Marie Mahoney received in an elaborate style to meet her guest, Miss Elizabeth Jefferson, of Louisville. Some 25 couples were present and it was a most happy occasion. The parlors were beautifully decorated with amethyst and bally and the colors of green and red prevailed throughout. Ices and frappe were served. Those who received were Misses Mabony, Jefferson, Josephine and Jean Warren, and Tevis Carpenter. Mrs. W. A. Tribble gave a magnificent 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening to Hon. H. K. Bourne, Miss Anne H. Banks, Mr. D. H. Irick and Miss Mary Hall. Mrs. J. S. Owsley, Jr., received on Friday afternoon in her usual charming manner and on Saturday evening Miss Celia Baughman was at home to a number of her friends.

JUDGE JOSH SWOPE has removed his stock of groceries to Lexington and we will miss him. George Hunn, of Moreland, spent the holidays with his father and mother on Mt. Vernon St. T. J. North, of Lincoln county, was the attractive guest of the Misses Hunn.—Somerset Journal.

DON'T fail to attend the auction Grand Leader.

JANUARY 5th, 8th, 9th and 11th are auction days. Grand Leader.

KERRY your eyes on Penny's drug store windows. The INTERIOR JOURNAL'S Legislative bulletins will be found there.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist will meet with Mrs. T. F. Spilok at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. All members are requested to be present as important business is to be transacted. Mrs. R. H. Mahoy.

HURT.—Mr. A. W. Carpenter was considerably bruised and had a narrow escape from death by his horse backing off from a bridge near Turnersville. Both the animal and vehicle were badly used up. The horse scared at a big rock on the bridge.

BANK STATEMENTS—Your attention is called to the bank statements which appear this issue. A perusal of them will at once convince you that the four banks of this county and the Commercial Bank of Liberty are substantial institutions and that stock in them is a safe and paying investment.

TO YOU—I have bought H D Campbell's restaurant and confectionery and cordially ask a portion of your patronage. I make a specialty of public day dinners and will serve you a good meal any day from 6 A M to mid-night. Oysters served in any and all styles and bulk oysters for sale. James T. Jones.

JAMES T JONES, who recently sold his tanning and plumbing business to Hughes Aldridge, bought out H. D. Campbell, the restauranteur and confectioner, Saturday and took charge at once. He should and doubtless will do well in his new line. Mr. Campbell has not decided what business he will engage in but we hope he will strike one of the "choicer."

MR CHARLES M RICE has sold his interest in the business of Rice & Traylor to Mr. W. H. Traylor. The firm now is Traylor & Co. Mr. Rice is undecided as to what business he will engage in, but we hope he will stay in Stanford.

AT the sale of Dr. Hawkins Brown's effects at Hustonville Saturday, Mrs. Mary Brown bought his late residence and office for $700. George Disbiddle the home occupied by Mrs. Brown for $880 and J. W. Hayden the vacant lot for $702. Other things sold well.

Mrs. James A. Soutleworth, of Louisville, has presented Danville Presbyterian church a silver communion service.

Bishop Galloway will go to St. Louis next Sunday and reopen the $50,000 First Methodist church.

The December collections for the Catholic University exceeded $100,000.

THE chance of a life time and attend the auction Grand Leader.

GET S P Gray's prices before you buy anything in the general merchandise line.

DROP in and see the good things we are offering on our remnant table. John P. Jones.

BUY your fill at your own price at the auction January 5th, 8th, 9th and 11th Grand Leader.

FOR RENT.—House of six rooms with all modern conveniences. All necessary outbuildings. J. T. Jones.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A two-story frame house on Danville Avenue. Apply to J. B. Byran, Stanford, Ky.

S. P. GRAY, at Florence's old stand, invites you to see his stock of merchandise. Be sure to see his line of stoves.

MR ROBERT FENZEL is back from Danville and ready to wait on his friends who want repairing of any kind done.

W. A. BRENDT, the Cedar Creek blacksmith, will shoe your horse for 6¢ and will cut your tires for 40¢ Bob each, of course.

IF this is not cold enough for you, just wait; it may possibly get colder. The mercury was at this A. M. and was only 10 degrees higher at 1 P. M.

OUR friend, Mr. T C Bell, has our thanks for a new year's present—box filled with almost everything good to eat and drink. "Tommy" never forgets his friends and we are glad to be of service to him.

MR CHARLES M RICE has sold his interest in the business of Rice & Traylor to Mr. W. H. Traylor. The firm now is Traylor & Co. Mr. Rice is undecided as to what business he will engage in, but we hope he will stay in Stanford.

Marks the close of the most satisfactory year of our business. It shall be our aim to always improve our service and the quality of our merchandise and thus make our sales of the new year much larger than in 1903. Careful buying, low prices, high qualities and our close touch with the best markets enable us to show choicest values in our every line. We have already made it possible for Lincoln county people to buy NICE GOODS without having to go away from HOME, and we shall constantly strive to be of further service to the buying public. Trade with us through 1904. We will be easy on your bank account.

Cummins & McClary.

Nineteen Hundred And Four-Ward.

Is our watchword for the new year. The INTERIOR JOURNAL let the cat out before we intended it should, but it is true that we will have more room by the addition of the room now occupied by the Grand Leader. We have been crowded for some time and as we expect to enlarge the lines we now carry and add some new ones, so we had to have more space both for the comfort and convenience of our customers and ourselves.

To Our Customers:—You have helped to make this a banner year for us and we want to thank you for your patronage and patience in waiting when we were unable to handle the big crowd of shoppers as quickly as we would like. We have improved our system for this year and promise you better service than ever before. Remember it is the customer's pleasure and convenience first with us. Use us, use our store, use our goods—we will give you your money's worth.

Mr. John H. Cullom, editor of the Gar-congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows:

"Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

An Englishman, visiting Lake Tahoe, asked a native if there was any good fishing in the lake.

"Oh, yes, stranger."

"What kind of fish do you catch here?"

"Oh, all kinds, stranger."

"What is the weight of the largest fish you ever caught?"

"Well, stranger, we don't take weighing machine when we go fishing, and I am as honest man, and wouldn't like to say how much that last trout I caught would weigh. But I tell you, stranger, that when I pulled that fish out of the water the lake went down a foot."
